PRICE THREE CENTS

PALMER BLAMED FOR HIGH PRICES IN SUGAR REPORT

Committee Investigating Prevailing Costs Gives Finding.

PRESENTED TO HOUSE

Attorney General Said To Have Misused Power In Past.

Washington, June 3.—That Attorney General Palmer had used his power as chief prosecuting officer of the government "for purposes of fixing maximum selling prices of sugar in Louisiana and in so doing acted wholly without authority of law and in violation of his own construction of his official duty" was the charge made by the sugar investigating committee in a majority report presented to the house.

The report prepared by Representative Husted, Republican, New York, chairman, charged that the legalistic method adopted by the attorney general was "wholly ineffective as a means of price control," and that "it gave apparent governmental sanction to extremely high sugar prices, which excited the cupidity of Cuban producers and caused an advance in the Cuban market."

Representatives Whaley, South Carolina, and Summers, Texas, Democratic members of the judiciary subcommittee which conducted the investigation, refused to sign the report and announced they would file a minority report. Republican members, including Chairman Husted, who agreed in the findings, were Representatives Klassen, Wisconsin, and Boies, Iowa.

Mr. Palmer insisted before the committee that he had not fixed sugar prices, but had merely stated the position of the department as to profit-making—that Louisiana planters selling at more than 17 and 18 cents wholesale would be prosecuted under the Lever law.

Declaring that the Louisiana crop was small, with a big demand, the majority charged that "certain producers in Louisiana obtained grossly excessive profits," as evidenced, it said, by the statement of District Attorney Henry Mooney that he was satisfied from his investigation that at 15 cents some producers would be making a good profit, "and at 17 cents would be making a very large profit."

The majority report declared that while Attorney General Palmer considered 17 cents "unreasonable" and "rather high," he concurred "in maximum prices of 17 and 18 cents," and instructed Mr. Mooney "to immediately prosecute any violator of this agreed price." There were no prosecutions, the majority said.

NAVAL STATION IS RAIDED BY FORCES OF IRISH REBELS

Reinforcements of Soldiers and Marines Arrive in Ireland.

London, June 3.—Sinn Feiners raided the Queenstown naval station and five other coast guard stations on the Irish coast during the night, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Queenstown today.

Resistance by the military police against Sinn Fein attacks on barracks is growing stronger. Half a dozen attempts by Sinn Feiners to raid barracks at different places in Ireland on Wednesday were unsuccessful and four of the attackers were killed.

At some points the Sinn Feiners cut telephone and telegraph wires and tore up the railroad tracks before beginning their attacks.

Reinforcements of soldiers and marines are pouring into Ireland daily. The British battleships Valiant and Warspite have embarked 1,200 Royal marines at Devonport for service in Ireland. The Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Devonport says that 1,200 soldiers from a Devonshire regiment will leave for Ireland tomorrow. Supplies of munitions are being sent to Ireland on British ships. Another unsuccessful attempt has been made to raid the barracks at Blarney. An effort was made to burn the village of Salinas, but the incendiaries were driven off.

Large quantities of ammunition have been landed at ports in North Ireland and sent into the South, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Belfast.

Martial Law in Greece.

London, June 3.—Martial law has been established in Greece by Premier Venizelos to forestall any effort of the followers of ex-King Constantine to effect a coup during the general election.

POLES ROUT RUSSIAN FORCES IN BATTLE

London, June 3.—The Russian bolshevik offensive against the Poles not only has been stopped but military defeat has been inflicted upon the Russian army, it was announced at the Polish legation today. The following statement, based upon dispatches from Warsaw, was given out: "The second bolshevik drive is failing before the fierce resistance of the Polish armies. To the south of Borisoff large forces of bolshevik troops, which had crossed the Dvina river, were dispersed. In Ukraina the Russians not only failed to recapture Kieff, but, after violent fighting on the left bank of the Dneiper river, were defeated on the front between Brovary and Krasilowka. On the Dneister river strong bolshevik attacks against the Polish right wing were repulsed with heavy losses. Ukrainian regiments co-operated successfully in defending the Polish right wing." The following bolshevik communique was received via the Moscow wireless: "In the direction of Molodetchne we advanced despite Polish attacks and occupied villages. We engaged the enemy with alternating success at the mouth of Beresina river. We had minor successes elsewhere."

CITY TO SPEND $65,000 FOR WATER IMPROVEMENT

Bids To Be Accepted By June 15; State Approves Plans.

With the plans for the extension and development of the new municipal water supply here approved by the State Board of Health, bids for the work are now being advertised. To be in the office of the City Auditor by June 15.

The sum of $65,000 provided in the $325,000 bond issue over and above purchase price of $160,000 will be used to develop the new water system, in addition to salvage from equipment now used in the new stations which it is estimated will amount to $20,000, making $85,000 available for the work. It is not thought that it will be necessary to immediately salvage the Cincinnati Avenue plant however, as that much money will be needed, but that plant will be disposed of as soon as the new one is equipped and in order.

During the construction of the new plant near the Old Town mill along the Springfield pike north of Old Town the present Springfield station can still be operated with the exception of about two days when it will be necessary to shift about 1,400 feet of water main to the new location. During that time the Cincinnati Avenue station will furnish all the water for the city.

THREE NEW WELLS. The new plant will secure its supply of new ground water from the three wells drilled by the Xenia Water Company, all of which have been tested and any one of which will supply the demand of Xenia city by itself. The water from the wells have been examined by the State Board of Health and found perfectly healthful and of excellent quality while the quantity is enormous.

The only detriment to the water is the presence of considerable iron, which discolors the plumbing, and which necessitates the installation of an iron removal plant. For that purpose an aerator will be installed, which separates the water into fine particles and causes a mixture of air and water that causes the iron to precipitate.

Two low duty pumps will be used to take the water from the wells and pump it into the aerator. From the aerator the water will go by gravity flow to a large settling basin designed so that it takes 12 hours for a day's

PROHIBITION LAWS WOULD BE REPEALED AS EMERGENCY ACT

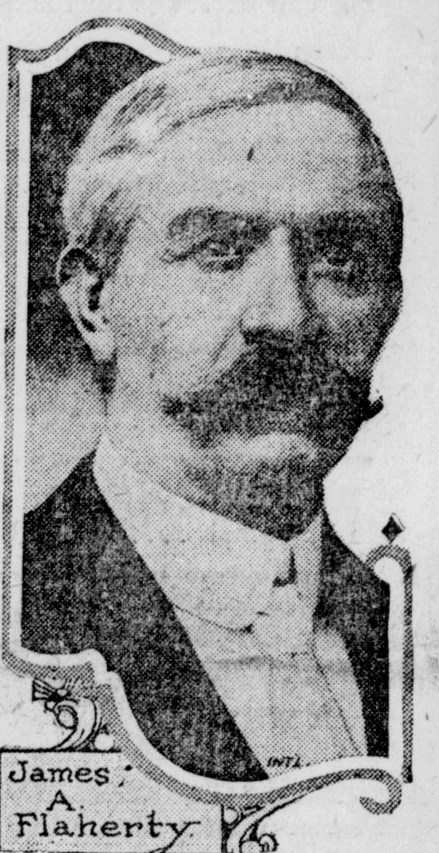

All War Time Measures Are Hit By Committee.

Washington, June 3.—By unanimous vote the house judiciary committee ordered out a resolution repealing all wartime emergency legislation, excepting the Lever food control act, the trading with the enemy law and the District of Columbia rent profiteering measure.

Chairman Volstead told the committee that he would attempt to have the house adopt the resolution before adjournment Saturday. House action, he said, would be attempted under suspension of the rules, which would permit only 40 minutes of debate.

The wartime prohibition act also would be repealed by the resolution. Wets on the judiciary committee insisted on having this act included in the list in the hope that the way to the sale of liquor would be reopened through a supreme court decision holding the constitutional prohibition act invalid. Congress, however, has gone on record against the repeal of the wartime act through the passage of the Volstead enforcement law over the president's veto.

VALIDITY OF TITLE TO OIL FIELDS IN TEXAS QUESTIONED

Thousands Of Oil Leases In State Under Suspicion.

Washington, June 3.—Doubt is thrown upon the validity of title to thousands of oil leases in the state of Texas by ancient documents brought to the attention of the department of justice today following litigation between Oklahoma and Texas involving oil deposits in the Red river district. Unless the documents now at the disposal of the Attorney General Palmer are declared by the Supreme court to be invalid or non applicable, more than a billion dollars worth of oil lands in Texas may pass out of the control of their present holders and become the property of the first "lease jumper" who files upon them.

Should it be decided that the lease holders affected must comply with the new federal oil lands leasing law to retain title to the property, they would have to do so within three months in which to do so; would be subject to a 20 per cent tax on all oil removed between Feb. 25, 1920 and the date upon which the new lease was issued, and thereafter would be required to pay the usual 12 1/2 per cent royalty to the United States.

Naval Bill Goes to Wilson. Washington, June 3.—The senate agreed to the naval appropriation bill as amended in conference and sent it to the president. It carries $440,000,000 and provides for investigation of the project for a deep sea naval base at San Francisco.

WAR TO DEATH TO BE WAGED AGAINST MEXICAN BANDIT

New Government Determined To Get Pancho Villa.

CLEAN UP COUNTRY

2500 Troops Join In Hunt For Outlaw Leader, Report.

Mexico City, June 3.—War to the death has been declared against Francisco Villa and his followers by the new Mexican government.

"We are going to clean house in Mexico and we are going to get Villa dead or alive if it takes the last dollar in the treasury and the last living soldier in the Mexican army," declared General P. Elias Calles, acting minister of war, in an interview with the International News Service today. "Banditry must be eliminated in Mexico and the government is determined to see that it is eliminated. This is especially necessary in the isolated regions. The republic must be made safe for foreigners and outside capital. No stone will be left unturned to bring this about. We are opening a campaign of extermination against the outlaw Villa and his followers. An effort will be made to negotiate with Villa and secure the surrender of him self and his men, but it has failed. Terms of settlement were offered but the Villistas rejected them."

VILLA SENDS ENVOY. While General Calles was on his way to Mexico City from Sonora Villa sent an envoy to Chihuahua City to confer with him and establish the official status of the Villistas in the anti-Carranza revolution. General Calles suggested that Villa and about 200 of his followers retire to the state of Sonora and remain quiet until after presidential election when the new government would make known its decision.

Villa refused to go to the state of Sonora and made the counter demand that he be put in supreme command of the rebel forces in the state of Chihuahua. General Calles rejected this proposal.

Three troop trains bearing more than 2,500 soldiers have left for Chihuahua during the past 36 hours to join the hunt for Villa. There is already a number of federal troops in the central part of that state seeking Villa and they are believed to be hot on the trail in the wild mountainous nature of the country. General Calles said that the plan of the campaign is to form a "steel ring" about the central part of the state where Villa is now in hiding and then close it in gradually.

In order to stimulate the campaign and bring it to a quick close all the federal soldiers have been notified that the government will pay a reward of 100,000 pesos for Villa dead or alive.

EXPECT ARRIVAL OF JOHNSON AT CHICAGO SESSION

Chicago, June 3.—The arrival of Hiram Johnson from Cleveland, where he spoke yesterday, was the big number on the card of pre-convention events scheduled here today. Rival headquarters all along the line perforce yielded the spot light, saying:

"This is Hiram's day." The blare of bands, the yelling of Johnson slogans, a great reception at the railway station, a parade to the Californian headquarters at the Auditorium Hotel with an escort of Chicago and Illinois Johnson club members, were all part of the program arranged at a meeting of his supporters here last night.

DELAWARE HOUSE BLOCKS SUFFRAGE ACT BY 24-10 VOTE

Decision Comes at End Of 10 Weeks Of Struggle.

Dover, Del., June 3.—The lower house of the Delaware legislature defeated the ratification of the woman's suffrage amendment by a vote of 24 to 10, ending a struggle which has lasted ever since the beginning of the special session, March 22. Motion was made to go into committee of the whole to consider suffrage. This was voted down, thus blocking roll call on ratification itself and killing it.

The legislature was called in special session by Governor Townsend March 22 to ratify the suffrage amendment, which action would have given the women of the nation the right to vote. There were many spirited contests during the 10 weeks. National political leaders, including Alfred I. Dupont and others, threw their strength to the suffrage cause and succeeded in obtaining favorable action by the senate May 5, after the house had defeated the ratification.

POLITICAL CROSS CURRENT CARRIES PREDICTION THAT G. O. P. CONVENTION WILL REACH AGREEMENT EARLY

PRE-CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

Chicago, June 3.—The Republican candidate for the presidency will be nominated on the seventh ballot if the averaged opinions of 23 visiting politicians serve as an indication.

Hiram Johnson's or Leonard Wood's—whose shoulders caught the mantle of Roosevelt? Lobby chatter gives it to Wood, since Colonel Roosevelt, "son of the old man" arrived here and "sat" to have his picture taken with the general.

Stretched clear across the front of the Auditorium Hotel facing Lake Michigan is the biggest election banner ever painted. In colossal red letters on a field of white appears the name of Hiram Johnson.

"He's even trying to win the Canadian vote," a wag remarked.

Republican women delegates have been invited to "Hoover house" presided over by Mrs. James W. Morrison, a Hooverette, who announces that luncheon will be served at only 50 cents the plate.

It was remarked that when certain delegates shrugged shoulders over the effect of news of alleged Lowden delegate purchases in Missouri, they spoke of dark horses as possibilities rather than of avowed candidates.

A formal statement issued from Hoover headquarters says Mr. Hoover will not be in Chicago during the convention "because he is so busy with other affairs."

In a recent beauty contest the likenesses of the competing beauties were shown on movie screens throughout the country and the winner decided by popular vote. Mlle. REPORT OF GERMAN OUTBREAK FALSE

Berlin, June 3.—A sensational report printed by the Tageblatt that great numbers of the Bavarian volunteer corps are concentrating near Berlin especially in the vicinity of Potsdam, for a revolutionary outbreak on Sunday was denied today by both Chancellor Mueller and the mayor of Potsdam. According to the Tageblatt Prince August Wilhelm, son of the former Kaiser, has been taking an active part in the preparation for the coup and that the program included the arrest of extremist leaders and anti-semitic outbreaks.

PRINCESS MARRIES CHAUFFEUR. Paris, June 3.—Princess Alexandra Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein who was recently divorced by Prince August William of Hohenzollern, fourth son of the ex-kaiser, has married her chauffeur, according to a Zurich dispatch to the Petit Journal today. The chauffeur, Fritz Mayer, was formerly a lieutenant in German officers reserve corps.

Recurrence of Race Disorders In Illinois Causes Panic.

Waukegan, Ill., June 3.—Two United States marines lie wounded in a Great Lakes Naval Training station hospital today and the naval authorities are planning the most drastic disciplinary measures for the station as the result of another race riot—the second in three days—in which a mob of sailors and marines late Wednesday night attacked Waukegan police and attempted to burn down a hotel frequented by negroes.

Early Wednesday night the police received information that an organized band of sailors and marines intended to raid the Sherman house the negro hotel, which was the center of Monday's rioting, with the intention of setting fire to the structure. Armed with riot guns and reinforced by a number of overseas veterans, the police went to the hotel and awaited the attack.

At the hour designated the mob of service men, numbering 150 poured out of a ravine back of the hotel and charged the structure. They were led by a sailor carrying the American flag.

Free For All Fight. For fifteen minutes the free for all fight raged. Several shots were fired and two of the marines dropped to the ground. Then the police succeeded in capturing a number of prisoners, and lodging them in jail. The mob followed them there and threatened to rush the place.

At this juncture Commander M. M. Frucht, executive officer at Great Lakes arrived with a strong provost guard and the sailors and marines were rounded up and taken back to the station. One of the wounded men was John Brown, of the 15th regiment of Marines. He was shot through the mouth. The other wounded man was shot through the back and leg. Then naval authorities refused to give his name.

Trouble between the Great Lakes men and negro residents of Waukegan started Monday, the day of the first riot, when a crowd of negro boys stoned an automobile driven by a naval lieutenant.

Washington, June 3.—Horace Stebbins, eastern treasurer for the General Wood campaign, was "found" today. Sergeants at arms of the senate and deputy United States have searched in vain for him for several days to serve the subpoena to compel his appearance before the senate committee investigating pre-convention presidential campaign expenditures and contributions. Senator Kenyon, Republican chairman of the committee, received the following telegram from Montreal today:

"Have just received word as desired to testify before your committee. Leaving for New York. Please telegraph me thirty one West Fifty Eighth Street, New York City, if can testify Friday. Have planned to leave for Chicago Saturday. (Signed) Horace Stebbins." Senator Kenyon wired to Stebbins at the New York address to come to New York tomorrow.

Leaders Believe Session Will Be Short Ending On Friday.

HARMONY IS GOAL

Main Fight Between Wood, Johnson And Lowden.

Chicago, June 3.—A strange veer of the political winds has set in during the past 24 hours and many leaders now voice the opinion that instead of the convention possibly lasting over Sunday it may even end as early as Friday.

General Leonard Wood believes the convention would be short and some of his principal supporters have expressed a similar view while along "presidential row" there seems to be a newborn feeling that things will not drag along in a deadlock once proceedings at the coliseum get underway.

All sorts of reasons for this new pre-convention cross current have been put forward, but the principal one invoked is the campaign fund airing before the Kenyon committee in Washington. The senatorial investigation, it is currently believed here, has already performed a considerable amount of work which, in one way or another, the convention would otherwise have had to do thereby shortening its labors by that much.

Furthermore, it is believed here that in case it is found, after the first ballot or two, that the chances of any of the candidates have been materially damaged by the testimony of witnesses in Washington, such candidates will soon eliminate themselves from the convention or be eliminated by it.

AVOID 1912 MISTAKES. Another of the reasons heard among politicians is that the Republicans this year, extremely desirous of not repeating the mistakes of 1912 and 1916, will strive from the outset for harmony. Some doubts are expressed that this will be at all times possible to obtain and there is still some betting that Senator Hiram Johnson will bolt the convention with the odds that he won't.

The main fight, as viewed five days before the convention meets, will first come between Wood, Johnson and Lowden, though sentiment swerves with each new sun, the belief exists here today that some six or seven ballots ought to tell the tale. The first not counting, the second furnishing an idea of comparative standings, the third, playing a tendency to deadlock, fourth and fifth ditto; then consultations and a nomination of one of the above—or some compromise candidate.

So argued the "regulars" today.

CHARGE OF WITNESS DENIED BY PALMER BEFORE COMMITTEE

Attorney General Denies Wet Aid Was Sought In Campaign

Washington, June 3.—Charges that the campaign for the nomination of Attorney General Palmer as Democratic candidate for the presidency had been conducted in Pennsylvania with an open appeal to the distillery and brewery interests in the state were made before the senate investigating committee by Eugene C. Bonniwell of Philadelphia.

Mr. Bonniwell, who distributed stickers during the primary campaign seeking the nomination of W. G. McAdoo, said that saloons and bonded warehouses in some parts of the state were now running "wide open" and that this was proceeding under the eyes of department of justice and prohibition enforcement officers of the federal government appointed "with Mr. Palmer's view." Bonniwell testified the Pennsylvania fight cost the Palmer men between $200,000 and $300,000.

When Mr. Bonniwell had concluded, Attorney General Palmer, who was present, made the charge that Mr. Bonniwell had employed "character assassination" methods against him in Pennsylvania for years, and concluded with the assertion that in Pennsylvania "Judge Bonniwell's word is not evidence of fact."

Prize Dress Cost $2.87. Austin, Tex., June 3.—A school dress for spring and fall which cost $2.87 and which was designed, made and worn by Miss Aline Johnson (Houston), has won first prize in a statewide high school girls' costume contest conducted by the University of Texas.

PALMER BLAMED FOR HIGH PRICES IN SUGAR REPORT

Committee Investigating Prevailing Costs Gives Finding.

PRESENTED TO HOUSE

Attorney General Said To Have Misused Power In Past.

Washington, June 3.—That Attorney General Palmer had used his power as chief prosecuting officer of the government "for purposes of fixing maximum selling prices of sugar in Louisiana and in so doing acted wholly without authority of law and in violation of his own construction of his official duty" was the charge made by the sugar investigating committee in a majority report presented to the house.

The report prepared by Representative Husted, Republican, New York, chairman, charged that the legalistic method adopted by the attorney general was "wholly ineffective as a means of price control," and that "it gave apparent governmental sanction to extremely high sugar prices, which excited the cupidity of Cuban producers and caused an advance in the Cuban market."

Representatives Whaley, South Carolina, and Summers, Texas, Democratic members of the judiciary subcommittee which conducted the investigation, refused to sign the report and announced they would file a minority report. Republican members, including Chairman Husted, who agreed in the findings, were Representatives Classen, Wisconsin, and Boies, Iowa.

Mr. Palmer insisted before the committee that he had not fixed sugar prices, but had merely stated the position of the department as to profiteering—that Louisiana planters selling at more than 17 and 18 cents wholesale would be prosecuted under the Lever law.

Declaring that the Louisiana crop was small, with a big demand, the majority charged that "certain producers in Louisiana obtained grossly excessive profits," as evidenced, it said, by the statement of District Attorney Henry Mooney that he was satisfied from his investigation that at 15 cents some producers would be making a good profit, "and at 17 cents would be making a very large profit."

The majority report declared that while Attorney General Palmer considered 17 cents "unreasonable" and "rather high," he concurred "in maximum prices of 17 and 18 cents," and instructed Mr. Mooney "to immediately prosecute any violator of this agreed price." There were no prosecutions, the majority said.

NAVAL STATION IS RAIDED BY FORCES OF IRISH REBELS

Reinforcements of Soldiers and Marines Arrive in Ireland.

London, June 3.—Sinn Feiners raided the Queenstown naval station and five other coast guard stations on the Irish coast during the night, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Queenstown today.

Resistance by the military police against Sinn Fein attacks on barracks is growing stronger. Half a dozen attempts by Sinn Feiners to raid barracks at different places in Ireland on Wednesday were unsuccessful and four of the attackers were killed.

At some points the Sinn Feiners cut telephone and telegraph wires and tore up the railroad tracks before beginning their attacks.

Reinforcements of soldiers and marines are pouring into Ireland daily. The British battleships Valiant and Warspite have embarked 1,200 Royal marines at Devonport for service in Ireland. The Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Devonport says that 1,200 soldiers from a Devonshire regiment will leave for Ireland tomorrow. Supplies of munitions are being sent to Ireland on British warships. Another unsuccessful attempt has been made to raid the barracks at Blarney. An effort was made to burn the village of Salinas, but the incendiaries were driven off.

Large quantities of ammunition have been landed at ports in North Ireland and sent into the South, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Belfast.

DELAWARE HOUSE BLOCKS SUFFRAGE ACT BY 24-10 VOTE

Decision Comes at End Of 10 Weeks Of Struggle.

Dover, Del., June 3.—The lower house of the Delaware legislature defeated the ratification of the woman's suffrage amendment by a vote of 24 to 10, ending a struggle which has lasted ever since the beginning of the special session, March 22. Motion was made to go into committee of the whole to consider suffrage. This was voted down, thus blocking roll call on ratification itself and killing it.

The legislature was called in special session by Governor Townsend March 22 to ratify the suffrage amendment, which action would have given the women of the nation the right to vote. There were many spirited contests during the 10 weeks.

National political leaders, including Alfred I. Dupont and others, threw their strength to the suffrage cause and succeeded in obtaining favorable action by the senate May 5, after the house had defeated the ratification.

POLITICAL CROSS CURRENT CARRIES PREDICTION THAT G. O. P. CONVENTION WILL REACH AGREEMENT EARLY

PRE-CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

Chicago, June 3.—The Republican candidate for the presidency will be nominated on the seventh ballot if the averaged opinions of 23 visiting politicians serve as an indication.

Hiram Johnson's or Leonard Wood's—whose shoulders caught the mantle of Roosevelt? Lobby chatter gives it to Wood, since Colonel Roosevelt, "son of the old man" arrived here and "sat" to have his picture taken with the general.

Stretched clear across the front of the Auditorium Hotel facing Lake Michigan is the biggest election banner ever painted. In colossal red letters on a field of white appears the name of Hiram Johnson.

"He's even trying to win the Canadian vote," a wag remarked.

Republican women delegates have been invited to "Hoover house" presided over by Mrs. James W. Morrison, a Hooverette, who announces that luncheon will be served at only 50 cents the plate.

It was remarked that when certain delegates shrugged shoulders over the effect of news of alleged Lowden delegate purchases in Missouri, they spoke of dark horses as possibilities rather than of avowed candidates.

A formal statement issued from Hoover headquarters says Mr. Hoover will not be in Chicago during the convention "because he is so busy with other affairs."

SAILORS AND MARINES BATTLE POLICE IN RAID

Wins Contest Recurrence of Race Disorders In Illinois Causes Panic.

Waukegan, Ills., June 3.—Two United States marines lie wounded in a Great Lakes Naval Training station hospital today and the naval authorities are planning the most drastic disciplinary measures for the station as the result of another race riot—the second in three days—in which a mob of sailors and marines late Wednesday night attacked Waukegan police and attempted to burn down a hotel frequented by negroes.

Early Wednesday night the police received information that an organized band of sailors and marines intended to raid the Sherman house negro hotel, which was the center of Monday's rioting, with the intention of setting fire to the structure. Armed with riot guns and reinforced by a number of overseas veterans, the police went to the hotel and awaited the attack.

At the hour designated the mob of service men, numbering 150, poured out of a ravine back of the hotel and charged the structure. They were led by a sailor carrying the American flag.

Free For All Fight. For fifteen minutes the free for all fight raged. Several shots were fired and two of the marines dropped to the ground. Then the police succeeded in capturing a number of prisoners, and lodging them in jail. The mob followed them there and threatened to rush the place.

At this juncture Commander M. M. Fruch, executive officer at Great Lakes arrived with a strong provost guard and the sailors and marines were rounded up and taken back to the station. One of the wounded men was John Brown, of the 15th regiment of Marines. He was shot through the mouth. The other wounded man was shot through the back and leg. Then naval authorities refused to give his name.

Trouble between the Great Lakes men and negro residents of Waukegan started Monday, the day of the first riot, when a crowd of negro boys stoned an automobile driven by a naval lieutenant.

REPORT OF GERMAN OUTBREAK FALSE

EASTERN TREASURER OF WOOD IS FOUND

Berlin, June 3.—A sensational report printed by the Tageblatt that great numbers of the Bavarian volunteer corps are concentrating near Berlin especially in the vicinity of Potsdam, for a revolutionary outbreak on Sunday was denied today by both Chancellor Mueller and the mayor of Potsdam. According to the Tageblatt Prince August Wilhelm, son of the former Kaiser, has been taking an active part in the preparation for the coup and that the program included the arrest of extremist leaders and anti-semitic outbreaks.

PRINCESS MARRIES CHAUFFEUR. Paris, June 3.—Princess Alexandra Victoria of Schleswig-Holstein who was recently divorced by Prince August William of Hohenzollern, fourth son of the ex-kaiser, has married her chauffeur, according to a Zurich dispatch to the Petit Journal today. The chauffeur, Fritz Mayer, was formerly a lieutenant in German officers reserve corps.

Washington, June 3.—Horace Stebbins, eastern treasurer for the General Wood campaign, was "found" today. Sergeants at arms of the senate and deputy United States have searched in vain for him for several days to serve the subpoena to compel his appearance before the senate committee investigating pre-convention presidential campaign expenditures and contributions. Senator Kenyon, Republican chairman of the committee, received the following telegram from Montreal today:

"Have just received word as desired to testify before your committee. Leaving for New York West Express telegraph me thirty one West Fifty Eighth Street, New York City, if can testify Friday. Have planned to leave for Chicago Saturday."

(Signed) Horace Stebbins.

Senator Kenyon wired to Stebbins at the New York address to come to New York tomorrow.

Leaders Believe Session Will Be Short Ending On Friday.

HARMONY IS GOAL

Main Fight Between Wood, Johnson And Lowden.

Chicago, June 3.—A strange veer of the political winds has set in during the past 24 hours and many leaders now voice the opinion that instead of the convention possibly lasting over Sunday it may even end as early as Friday.

General Leonard Wood believes the convention would be short and some of his principal supporters have expressed a similar view while along "presidential row" there seems to be a newborn feeling that things will not drag along in a deadlock once proceedings at the coliseum get under way.

All sorts of reasons for this new pre-convention cross current have been put forward, but the principal one invoked is the campaign fund-raising before the Kenyon committee in Washington. The senatorial investigation, it is currently believed here, has already performed a considerable amount of work which, in one way or another, the convention would otherwise have had to do, thereby shortening its labors by that much.

Furthermore, it is believed here that in case it is found, after the first ballot or two, that the chances of any of the candidates have been materially damaged by the testimony of witnesses in Washington, such candidates will soon eliminate themselves from the convention or be eliminated by it.

AVOID 1912 MISTAKES. Another of the reasons heard among politicians is that the Republicans this year, extremely desirous of not repeating the mistakes of 1912 and 1916, will strive from the outset for harmony. Some doubts are expressed that this will be at all times possible to obtain and there is still some betting that Senator Hiram Johnson will bolt the convention with the odds that he won't.

The main fight, as viewed five days before the convention meets, will first come between Wood, Johnson and Lowden, though sentiment swerves with each new sun, the belief exists here today that some six or seven ballots ought to tell the tale. The first not an idea of comparative standings, the third displaying a tendency to deadlock, fourth and fifth ditto; then consultations and a nomination of one of the above—or some compromise candidate.

So argued the "regulars" today.

CHARGE OF WITNESS DENIED BY PALMER BEFORE COMMITTEE

Attorney General Denies Wet Aid Was Sought In Campaign

Washington, June 3.—Charges that the campaign for the nomination of Attorney General Palmer as Democratic candidate for the presidency had been conducted in Pennsylvania with an open appeal to the distillery and brewery interests in the state were made before the senate investigating committee by Eugene C. Bonniwell of Philadelphia.

Mr. Bonniwell, who distributed stickers during the primary campaign seeking the nomination of W. G. McAdoo, said that saloons and bonded warehouses in some parts of the state were now running "wide open" and that this was proceeding under the eyes of department of justice and prohibition enforcement officers of the federal government appointed "with Mr. Palmer's view." Bonniwell testified the Pennsylvania fight cost the Palmer men between $200,000 and $300,000.

When Mr. Bonniwell had concluded, Attorney General Palmer, who was present, made the charge that Mr. Bonniwell had employed "character assassination" methods against him in Pennsylvania for years, and concluded with the assertion that in Pennsylvania "Judge Bonniwell's word is not evidence of fact."

Price Dress Coat $2.87.

Austin, Tex., June 3.—A school dress for spring and fall which costs $2.87 and which was designed, made and worn by Miss Aline Johnson of Houston, has won first prize in a statewide high school girls' clothing contest conducted by the University of Texas.

SAYS AMERICAN YOUTH ANSWERS CALL TO EUROPE

Paris, June 3.—The male youth of America is answering the feminine call of France for husbands. Dr. Carnot of the university of Paris, who recently gave an interview to the International News Service suggesting an international marriage pool to relieve the shortage of French husbands, declared in the current number of the "Paris Medical" that he has received an avalanche of letters from every state in the American union.

"These letters have come from all social classes of Americans and all want to marry French girls," said Professor Carnot today. "I never thought that my proposal would bear such fruit, but the letters have come so rapidly and in such numbers that I believe tens of thousands of French girls may find happiness with American husbands."

"I now urge the formation of a committee of well known French women who are conversant with American customs to co-operate with a similar committee in the United States to arrange the marriages. Many of the writers tell exactly what kind of brides they want. The bulk of the letters are from the United States, but not a few come from Canada. All apparently are sincere and a large percentage say they are willing to live in France. France must insist upon this as one of the conditions, because the country is short of men, as a result of the war, and needs babies to grow up into French citizens. The committee could easily weed out the undesirable ones on both sides."

"American and Canadian men make good husbands for French girls even if they do come from a foreign country. They have moral and physical vigor and proved their courage in the war. It seems that out French girls have prestige in America overshadowing that of our blundering politicians and financiers."

DENY NECESSITY FOR CHANGES IN WHEAT STANDARD

Washington, June 2.—Necessity for changes in federal wheat standards was denied today by Secretary of Agriculture Meredith in answer to complaints of dissatisfaction with federal grades recently voiced in the north-west.

The secretary held hearings in Chicago and Washington and decided no change will be made at the present time. Lowering of the present standards as advocated by the central north-west representatives would decrease the farmers return, the secretary declared. The present grades have not had a fair test, the secretary declared.

LOCAL COAL DEALER SAYS MINERS LIVE IN FINE CONDITIONS

You have no doubt heard stories of down trodden, poor coal miners, working amid dangers and hardships drilling into the carbon while lying stretched out in muddy water and at the end of his miner's week, receiving in compensation a few paltry dollars for the inhuman labor to which he is subjected.

On the other hand you have probably heard that the coal miners are making much better money than any type of laboring man in this city, are working banker's hours, are employed under the very best conditions with a view to safety and comfort, and are living in towns built by the company for which they work, in homes furnished by that company at an almost cost basis.

Yet this latter condition is more prevalent according to Frank Hurley, of the Stiles Co., dealers in coal, who has made a trip to Omar, W. Va., home of the Main Island Creek Coal mines in the Logan field.

According to Mr. Hurley, living conditions there are far above the average. The company itself has erected comfortable homes, which it rents to employees for the small sum of $2 per room, per month. Thus a six room house, with modern conveniences, costs but $12 a month.

DESPITE ILL-HEALTH, SENATOR PENROSE MAY HAVE DECIDING VOICE AT CHICAGO

Senator Boise Penrose.

Despite his ill-health, Senator Penrose of Pennsylvania, the last great general of the famous Old Guard, still remains a tremendous power in the councils of the Republican party. If a deadlock develops at the Chicago convention, as now seems quite possible, Penrose, with seventy-six Pennsylvania delegates solidly behind him, may be the man to select the compromise candidate. Will that man be Senator Knox?

Mining conditions are thoroughly modern, says the local man. The mines are electrically lighted and every modern method has been taken to insure safety in the excavations. In case of a cave-in in the mines, which would cut the miner off from the outer world, rooms are provided

FAIL TO LOCATE MAN'S RELATIVES

A. R. Ross, who died at the Miami Conservancy District near Fairfield Monday morning, was buried Wednesday afternoon from the undertaking parlors of J. H. Whitmer, without relatives having been located.

Brief services were held at two o'clock conducted by Rev. Albert Read pastor of the First Baptist Church and burial was made in Woodland. The man died after two weeks illness of pneumonia, but failed to give the names of relatives or friends. He had only been working at the Conservancy a short time and was practically unknown.

YOU CAN'T RUB RHEUMATISM OUT

Says W. M. Glenn of Carbon, West Virginia.

"Too much praise cannot be given to Prescription C-2223, because it is all you recommend it to be and much more. It is true you can't rub rheumatism out, but Prescription C-2223 will drive it out. I was a sufferer from rheumatism and took only one and a half bottles of the $1.50 size. Now I never feel the misery that tortured me all day long."

This man is right. While rubbing and poultices may ease the pain sometimes, it takes internal treatment, something that will drive the poisons out of the blood.

Such a preparation is Prescription C-2223. You can depend on it to relieve you because it was originally prepared and used by a doctor in his private practice. The treatment gave his patients, satisfying benefit and it has since brought health and happiness to thousands.

Prescription C-2223 contains no Mercury, Chloral, Strychnine, dangerous or habit forming drugs. Your money will be refunded if two $1.50 bottles do not give you relief.

Before taking Prescription C-2223, you should stimulate the secretions of the liver and regulate the bowels by the use of 2223 Liver Pills. This vegetable cathartic will not make you sick or gripe.

If you suffer with rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica or a neuralgic condition, begin taking this guaranteed treatment. Should it happen that your druggist won't supply you, a $1.50 bottle and a box of the Pills will be sent you postpaid on receipt of $1.75. SHEETS DENIES USE OF OFFICE MONEY WRONGLY, THURSDAY

Denying that he had ever converted any moneys of his office to his own use, reiterating the declaration that there was no "moral wrong" on his part, and declaring that there was a "difference of figures, and not actual cash," George W. Sheets former Clerk of the Courts took the witness stand in his own defense Thursday morning at his trial on the charge of embezzling $4708 in county funds.

Not more than half a dozen entries had been made on the cash book by himself, he declared, and he averred that oversight on the part of his deputies had been responsible for his failure to be charged on his cash book with certain items.

Questioned by his attorneys regarding the two disputed conservancy board checks to cover court costs and witness and jury fees, amounting to nearly $2000 which had been deposited by himself to his credit as clerk in the bank but never charged on the cash book, he declared that they were "held back for no purpose" but that he had failed to charge himself with them in the same way that there had been failure to take credit in other items. "It is as easy to leave off an item of $1090 as it is one of $1 he said." He declared also that he had no intention of saying, as had been testified by Judge Kyle and S. O. Hale that the jury fees in the conservancy cases had never been paid to him, but that he intended to reply that he had no knowledge of their having been paid.

Cross examined by Judge Shoup, he was questioned regarding an alleged short in his office discovered through an examination by Inspector Parrott of the State Bureau of Accounting a year before the examination by Inspector Bliss. He admitted that he had borrowed $800 from Judge Shoup but denied that the borrowed money was deposited in the bank to his credit as clerk.

He was questioned regarding a refund for $375 for witness fees, which he had paid to the conservancy board by check. The stub of the check had been torn from the check book. He denied any intent of wrong doing in destroying the stub and said that he had no recollection of its having been done. He denied that he destroyed the stub in an effort to help hide any shortage.

W. B. McCallister who was one of the last witnesses called by the state declared that he had made a trip with Judge Shoup to the home of Mr. Sheets to see if they could help him.

After Mr. Shoup or himself, he said, asked Mr. Sheets if he had not used $800 of the county's money to cover and alleged shortage as treasurer of the Moose lodge. He testified that Mr. Sheet answered, "no it wasn't that much, it was only $300."

On cross examination Mr. McCallister was asked by counsel or the defense if he had not in a conversation with William Laurens asked him if he would not serve on the Sheets jury, as he was a friend of Judge Shoup. He denied having said this.

On his direct examination Mr. Sheets was asked concerning the statement of Mr. McCallister regarding the conversation at his home. "They ought to be ashamed to say that," he said, "I thought at the time that Mr. Shoup was my friend and would be my council."

The evidence in the case may be concluded Thursday afternoon by Judge R. L. Cameron, the trial judge left the bench at 4 o'clock in order to go to Marysville to attend the graduation exercises of the high school, his son being a graduate. He will return early Friday.

MEREDITH'S STATEMENT

Present Federal Wheat Standards Are to Be Continued.

Washington, June 3.—Continuation of present federal wheat standards was decided upon by Secretary Meredith in an opinion covering hearings held to inquire into dissatisfaction in the central northwest with existing grades for hard red spring and durum wheats. Requests for lowering the present standards, the secretary announced, would tend to decrease the return to farmers, while advocates of the change argued that the producer would receive more money for his wheat. The federal standards established in 1917 and revised in 1918 have been operative only under fixed prices and war conditions, the secretary stated, adding that opportunity for fair tests of their merits or defects has not been afforded under normal marketing conditions.

Mrs. D. W. Cosley is planning a trip to the Orient to be taken in the fall, going to Tokyo, Japan, to attend the convention of The International Sunday School Association. HUGE AIR SERVICE WILL LINK NEW YORK, CLEVELAND AND CHICAGO.

Maturing plans of the Aerial Transport Corporation, recently organized by interests in Cleveland, New York and Washington for the development of commercial aviation, provide for beginning service in July between New York and Chicago by way of Cleveland. This is to be followed by extension of service to other sections of the country and to Canada as part of a general program for giving air express service to all parts of the United States. Passenger service is also to be provided. Headquarters of the corporation are in Cleveland.

Sponsors of the company include leaders in finance and in automotive and aviation development. The corporation is capitalized at $15,000,000.

Many civilians formerly in army and navy aviation service are now developing plans for extension of the service to other parts of the country in which they are in business, are interested in the company. The organization work is being conducted by Colonel A. W. Harris, former aviator now president of the Cleveland Aviation Club. Fifty airplanes have been contracted for and 200 more are to be purchased as the service is extended.

A seventy-five minute service between Cleveland and Detroit with a $25 trip charge per passenger, is soon to be established by the United States Aerial Express Co. That service is to be extended to Buffalo and Toronto. Express charges are to be about one cent a mile per pound. Three ships of seaplane type are to be in service. Lieutenant Thomas F. Dunn, Detroit, is general manager of the company, which is backed by business men of the Great Lakes cities.

SHOULD WE TAKE OVER ARMENIA.

Whether the President correctly reflects the feelings and desires of the American people when he expresses so confidently the belief that in urging upon the Congress the acceptance of the Armenian mandate he is voicing their wishes may be gravely questioned. The deep sympathy with the Armenian people as evinced by the generous outpouring of material assistance in their dire extremity is too plainly in evidence to be disputed; but there has been a deep-rooted reluctance to have the government undertake large obligations and involve itself in complications in a region so far removed from our own immediate interests as is the Near East.

For the United States to assume the obligation would be an act of supreme international philanthropy, for of all the nations of the world, this nation is the one which has the least to gain for itself and everything in service to give to others in such an undertaking as the Armenia mandate would involve. It would mean an enormous outlay of treasure, it would involve the temporary exile of thousands of our choicest manhood in Asia Minor and it would clearly impose upon us the necessity of taking a share in the troublesome perplexities that have always attended the world's dealings with the Turk and with the attempts to mitigate the consequences of his centuries of misrule.

The problem has hardly received that careful consideration from American statesmen and publicists which its gravity requires. It can no longer be ignored, however, for the President's message to the Senate precludes a further postponement of what he rightly terms a crucial issue. His reference to the boundary issue plainly indicates that he is fully alive to one paramount condition which must be fulfilled before the United States could seriously entertain the proposal, and that is, of course, the preliminary guarantee that the new State shall be given an access to the sea so clearly defined and so protected that American access to its mandatory should never be obstructed.—Public Ledger.

"That's Nelson's Column—took two years to build." To which the Yank replied, "Gee! We'd have done it in as many weeks."

Presently, as the bus was passing St. Paul's, "What's that ancient edifice?" queried the American. "How long did that take to build?" The conductor, fed-up by now, answered briefly, "Can't say, sir. Didn't notice it here when I passed this morning."—London Opinion.

BEAUTY CHATS

THE PERFECT FOOT

The perfect foot need not necessarily be small. As a matter of fact, the very small foot has gone completely out of fashion—even in China. Feet should be large enough so they look adequate to support the body and should be in proportion to the legs and ankles. The long slim foot is always better looking than the short, fat foot; and yet here again the question of proportion enters in. For a long slim foot on a short and chubby girl would be homely and ridiculous.

The perfect foot has a high instep, with a well defined hollow beneath. To test this in yourself, step barefooted on a dry floor when the soles of the feet are wet. The impression of the five toes, the ball of the foot, the heel, and a thin line of the outer edge of the foot will be shown on the floor. If an impression of the entire foot is made in this way, you probably have fallen arches. The toes should lie straight ahead; the large toe should not turn inward, and will not unless you have been wearing unhealthy shoes. The skin of the foot should be white and the toes and heel a rosy pink. This is the healthy foot and consequently the perfect foot.

If you can afford the services of a good chiropodist it is an excellent thing to go to one regularly, if you feet yourself. Articles on the care feet yourself. Articles on the care of the feet appear here quite frequently and I am, of course, always glad to answer specific questions. For the feet require quite a bit of special attention since they are encased in hot leather shoes at least two-thirds of the time.

Can you imagine a complexion treatment that would consist of covering the skin with heavy leather for 16 hours a day and then, having deprived it of air for this period, would keep it the rest of the day covered up with bedclothes? Such a treatment does not sound as though it would produce a perfect complexion, and yet we expect our feet to thrive under such care!

A. G.—Reducing a fat bust is one of the most difficult things to do. If you are too stout a general reduction will also reduce this part.

Bob.—The usual way for taking yeast is to take from one-half to one and one-half cakes of compressed yeast a day. Whatever amount you take, dissolve in water and drink it; the taste is not unpleasant.

In case the booking is made, the Saints will stage conflict with the locals at the Cincinnati avenue park next Sunday afternoon; the game to start at 2:30 o'clock.

I will be the second appearance of the Dayton lads here this season, in their previous game the visitors defeating the locals by a close score. Since the initial battle of these rivals the locals have been fortified by the addition of several new players and it is expected that the Gem City outfit will be given a real battle on the coming week-end.

BEAUTY CHATS

THE PERFECT FOOT

The perfect foot need not necessarily be small. As a matter of fact, the very small foot has gone completely out of fashion—even in China. Feet should be large enough so they look adequate to support the body and should be in proportion to the legs and ankles. The long slim foot is always better looking than the short, fat foot; and yet here again the question of proportion enters in. For a long slim foot on a short and chubby girl would be homely and ridiculous.

The perfect foot has a high instep, with a well defined hollow beneath. To test this in yourself, step barefooted on a dry floor when the soles of the feet are wet. The impression of the five toes, the ball of the foot, the heel, and a thin line of the outer edge of the foot will be shown on the floor. If an impression of the entire foot is made in this way, you probably have fallen arches. The toes should lie straight ahead; the large toe should not turn inward, and will not unless you have been wearing unhealthy shoes. The skin of the foot should be white and the toes and heel a rosy pink. This is the healthy foot and consequently the perfect foot.

If you can afford the services of a good chiropodist it is an excellent thing to go to one regularly, if you feet yourself. Articles on the care feet yourself. Articles on the care of the feet appear here quite frequently and I am, of course, always glad to answer specific questions. For the feet require quite a bit of special attention since they are encased in hot leather shoes at least two-thirds of the time.

Can you imagine a complexion treatment that would consist of covering the skin with heavy leather for 16 hours a day and then, having deprived it of air for this period, would keep it the rest of the day covered up with bedclothes? Such a treatment does not sound as though it would produce a perfect complexion, and yet we expect our feet to thrive under such care!

A. G.—Reducing a fat bust is one of the most difficult things to do. If you are too stout a general reduction will also reduce this part.

Bob.—The usual way for taking yeast is to take from one-half to one and one-half cakes of compressed yeast a day. Whatever amount you take, dissolve in water and drink it; the taste is not unpleasant.

Bright Eyes.—The large pores that follow blackheads can be reduced by the simple daily face treatment consisting of a hot soap and water wash, a cold cream massage, and an ice rub.

MARKET AND FINANCIAL NEWS

STOCKS
The market has become thoroughly liquidated. With the technical position strong and brokers' loans unusually small, the stage has apparently been set for a spirited rally. Signs of easing credit tension, indefatigable efforts to pierce the railroad jam and the hopeful attitude which price deflation has inspired all figure as powerful constructive forces. Nevertheless the banks will continue their policy of contraction for an indefinite time, it is indicated. Money will be tight and rates firm. Business labors under a burden of uncertainty that cannot help but find reflection in the security list. Forward movements will occur, but can hardly be expected to lift speculative values far from their present level.

Bankers are not in haste to put the fruits of contraction at the disposal of market speculators. Securities will remain under the shadow of tightness in money for some time. Political uncertainties and the attitude of both parties toward legislation add a complicating factor.

GRAIN
Intervention of the Interstate Commerce Commission and the preference given grain insure maximum relief from the car shortage and paralysis of the railroads within a minimum of time. Farmers have shown themselves indisposed to sell freely at price levels attained during the recent sharp break, and needs are so great that fairly large receipts cannot be absorbed without discomfort or injury to prices. Foodstuffs have resisted the general decline; the bear side of the market certain factors are operative that suggest no rise to dizzy heights unless unforeseen developments occur. Feeding has become unprofitable. Hypelets would expand rapidly if cars were obtainable. The Argentine corn crop is above normal. Weakness and hesitation may distinguish the market for a time in contrast with the recent surge to new high points.

LIVESTOCK
Prices paid producers of livestock during April advanced much less than is normal and stand 15 per cent lower than a year ago. Certainly the condition of the live stock market has not been gratifying to the grower. The break in live mutton was due and partly seasonal. Heavy cattle have sunk to lower and yet lower levels. Hogs showed the best action. Calves showed further weakness after bottom had supposedly been reached.

LEASES CREAMERY
The state of North Dakota under Non-Partisan League guidance has leased a creamery at Werner and will soon enter the creamery business. The state thus adds one more to its numerous enterprises undertaken in behalf of the farmer. North Dakota is a great laboratory where the idea of state operation, as contrasted with private co-operation, is being tested. The farmer is by nature, training, and heredity individualistic rather than communistic, and for this reason inclines in most states toward private association without the intervention of a government agency.

Wheat costs $20 to 25 bushels an acre to produce, according to an expert of the South Dakota State Agricultural college. The average yield in South Dakota last year is put at eight bushels to the acre. The ten-year average is nearly 12 bushels, a fair estimate. Thus under present conditions the cost of raising wheat would seem to vary between $1.70 and $2.10 a bushel. Rent or interest, man labor, horse labor, seed, and general expense are the principal items, all footing up about the same. Wheat cannot sell below $2.20 nowadays and still be a practicable crop.

TELEGRAPH CHARGE DISMISSED; W. U. ACT VINDICATED

Washington, June 2.—The interstate commerce commission today dismissed the complaint brought by the Postal Telegraph and Cable company against the Western Union Telegraph company for refusing to extend credit for tolls on messages transferred by the Postal for transmission. The Western Union discontinued the practice of extending credit to the Postal on August 1 last year. The interstate commerce commission held that while the Western Union extends credits to certain corporations, its decision to deny such privileges to the Postal was not unduly prejudicial.

THE EXCUSE OF THE DAY TOLD IN PICTURES

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

THE HECTIC HEGIRA.

There was a gloomy gentleman who lived upon a farm. For him, the scenes bucolic had all lost their subtle charm. He wearied of the lowing kine, the wheat and oats and corn. And longed to move his baggage from the place where he was born.

He sighed for the metropolis of asphalt, stone and brick. The pigs and calves and ducks and geese and chickens made him sick. He packed the family furniture and sold the farm, cash down. And on the train he met ten others moving into town.

The freight-train loads of household goods congested all the yards. The sleepers and day coaches were all loaded to the guards. And everybody in the world, it seemed, desired to toil Within the city's murky bounds and sluff the rural soil.

The hero of this tale looked for a home and looked and looked. But every flat and house and tent and tenement was booked. He found some good apartments. They were numerous, beside. But every one that he could find was leased and occupied.

We met him just the other day and fire was in his eye. He has a great ambition that so many people try. He's working every crook and turn the dollar bills to charm. He wants to save enough to go and buy another farm.

When we began conducting this column, several years ago, we had the erroneous idea that we could please everybody, and we conducted it with that end in view. Now we are not trying to please anybody and are doing fairly well.

Bainbridge Colby will be the president's "favorite son" for the presidency. What has become of the president's favorite son-in-law? Perhaps you will say this is more McAdoo About Nothing.

NO QUALMS.

We asked a low-browed bandit, "Sirrah, how can you stand it To sneak around at night and thug and steal? When you slug and hold up fellers, break into and rob cellars, Don't you painful qualms of conscience ever feel? Rejoiced the hardened villain, "Aw, nothing short of killin' Disturbs the least or causes me to fear. Before I was a robber I was workin' at the job or The avocation of a soulless profiteer."

—Tennyson J. Daff.

One thing we hope to see, after which we will think we have seen everything worth while. We hope to see a battle between a rent gouger and a food hog.

"A profiteer can't take it with him when he goes," says a philosopher. But it is rather dull work for the rest of us to sit around and wait for that.

In spite of the theory of the scientist, we do not believe a hard working man lives longer than an idler. It only seems longer.

The first man to carry an umbrella was chased by a mob. Yes, probably he stole it, too.

Some people's souls are as white as snow—and just as cold.

MICHIGAN CONTEST AIRED IN SENATE

Washington, June 2.—The senate's committee investigating campaign expenditures heard Fred A. Alger, who appeared as president of the Leonard Wood league in Michigan. He said the league had spent $54,600 in the state, all of which was raised there. "In addition to that, which our treasurer reported last week," Mr. Alger added, "I personally spent some $22,000 or $23,000 of my own money on the work."

State headquarters, Mr. Alger said, had accounted for $54,000 of the expenditures, to which account he personally had given $50,000. Of the $23,000 he used personally, he said, $2,500 had been spent for expenses of speakers and to employ a man to "organize a corps of speakers," most of whom spoke in the factories in and around Detroit.

COUPLE MARRIED AT DEATH BED UNDER GUARD OF POLICE

Chicago, June 3.—Under guard of policemen, Viola Carpenter and Robert M. Taylor, were married late Tuesday night in a hospital where the girl was dying, a victim of Taylor's revolver marksmanship. After the strange ceremony Taylor was returned to his cell in a police station and a few hours later his bride was dead.

The two met in Akron, Ohio, two years ago, after Viola had left her home at Cedarville, Ind., to look for work there. They fell in love and lived together as man and wife, finally coming to Chicago. Last Thursday Viola was shot in the apartment where they were living. She told the police that she had shot herself accidentally but Taylor finally admitted that he had done the shooting but that it was accidental. He was lodged in jail.

Knowing that she was dying, Viola last night said that it was her last wish that she and Taylor be married. The police consented, and Taylor was brought to her bedside, bringing with him a marriage license he had obtained several weeks ago.

"Viola always wanted a marriage ceremony," he explained. "I always intended to marry her, but kept putting it off."

A priest was sent for. Then Taylor, sobbing, knelt beside the bedside and took Viola's hand in his.

"Do you take this man to be your lawful husband?" began the priest.

"I do," answered Viola with great effort and in a voice scarcely audible. "Do you take this woman—"

"I do," I do," sobbed Taylor.

"Then I pronounce you man and wife."

The two embraced. The hardened policemen turned away to hide their tears. The priest administered the sacrament of extreme unction.

"Good bye, dear husband!"

"Good bye, dear wife."

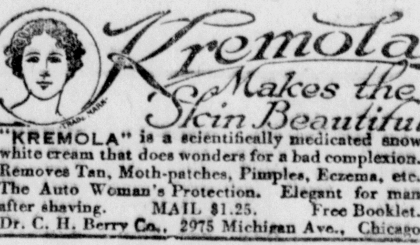

And Taylor was led away. Three hours later the news of Viola's death was brought to him.

No arrests in connection with the case, have as yet been made.

KEITH THEATER IN DAYTON IS BOUGHT BY CHARLES GROSS

Dayton, O., June 3.—Charles Gross, proprietor of the Columbia motion picture theater, which shows first run pictures, has purchased the old Colonial Theater, at Fifth and Ludlow streets, popularly known as B. F. Keith's, from the Hanley estate, the consideration being $325,000.

Mr. Gross has purchased the new location to be able to accommodate his patrons, his present house being too small to take care of the crowds he has been drawing. He will be given possession of the house after July 1, at which time he will assume the leases of occupants of the building. It is thought that after that date that Keith vaudeville will be shown in the Strand, a Keith owned house, and that motion pictures will be discontinued there.

The Colonial was built in 1912 by the late Mr. Hanley, and from the time of opening in October of that

INSECT PESTS ARE ROUTED BY KILLO

Red ants flee from Killo, the great disinfectant. It eradicates any kind of insect pest. Moths will not affect garments where a little of this powder is sprinkled through closets. Water bugs, roaches and flies avoid it, while a little dusted on chickens quickly kills off the lice.

In the sickroom it deodorizes and freshens the air, kills germs and removes infection. Damp, moldy cellars are purified and made wholesome by Killo.

Lawns that are being injured by ants and other insects may be saved, and plants are protected by the use of Killo according to directions with the package. Killo is especially fine for bugs on cucumber and melon vines. Sprinkle the vines with a solution of Killo and water and scratch dry Killo into the ground around the vines. To Fight Buddhism in Hawaiian Islands

Japanese Mother and Children

Japanese Girls playing Games in the Yard of St. Mary's Mission, Honolulu

Chinese Girls at St. Mary's Mission

More schools for the children of the Hawaiian Islands will be one of the direct results of the Nation-Wide Campaign of the Episcopal Church, which has been inaugurated to raise more than $42,000,000 and to enlist 1,500 new workers for the development of missionary work in all its phases.

Children's schools, both day and boarding, have been established with great success by the Episcopal Church in Honolulu and on all the other islands of the group, but the Chinese and Japanese children, the Portuguese and Hawaiians who live there are still in great need of the influence of Christian schools and modern educational methods. Already the Buddhists have twenty-five schools and a temple for the educational and religious training of the youth of the islands, and although the native Hawaiians are largely Episcopalian in their religion, more work must be done if the spread of Buddhism throughout the islands is to be checked.

The schools of the Episcopal Church in the Hawaiian Islands have been successful beyond expectations in their results. The influence of the schools has been felt not only in the islands themselves, but also back in Japan and China, the two countries of a large percentage of the population. Dr. Sun Yat Sen, China's first and provisional president, received his education in one of these Christian schools in Hawaii. Boys' schools, girls' schools and co-educational schools have all done untold good among the Chinese and Japanese element. All nationalities in the islands are taken into consideration by the Episcopalian mission, but since the Japanese and Chinese predominate, most of the work is done with them. About one-sixth of the 217,744 inhabitants of the Hawaiian Islands is pure Hawaiian.

In order to continue and expand its work of educating and Christianizing this important group of islands, known as "the crossroads of the Pacific," the Episcopal Church needs $225,110, according to its latest prospects. This budget includes the establishment of schools, orphanages and church buildings.

In its early missionary days in the Hawaiian Islands, the Episcopal Church was instrumental in breaking down one of the most vicious religious systems that ever existed, and brought the natives to a state of barbaric superstition to a condition of enlightenment and education that has practically regenerated the islands. Their old religion was tabu, and consisted of a series of prohibitions that made life absolute slavery. Certain foods, places, persons, things, customs, were declared tabu at stipulated times. Fire, light, bathing, work, were prohibited; lying was against the divine law. Dogs' mouths were tied to prevent their barking.

All this has been overcome now, and the islands stand in a fair way to become more thoroughly Christianized and modernized when the Nation-Wide Campaign of the Episcopal Church carries out its plans to

KEITH THEATER IN DAYTON IS BOUGHT BY CHARLES GROSS

Dayton, O., June 3.—Charles Gross, proprietor of the Columbia motion picture theater, which shows first run pictures, has purchased the old Colonial Theater, at Fifth and Ludlow streets, popularly known as B. F. Keith's, from the Hanley estate, the consideration being $325,000.

Mr. Gross has purchased the new location to be able to accommodate his patrons, his present house being too small to take care of the crowds he has been drawing. He will be given possession of the house after July 1, at which time he will assume the leases of occupants of the building. It is thought that after that date that Keith vaudeville will be shown in the Strand, a Keith owned house, and that motion pictures will be discontinued there.

The Colonial was built in 1912 by the late Mr. Hanley, and from the time of opening in October of that

BAFFLING MYSTERY COMES TO LIGHT ON THEFT OF FISH BAIT

Roy! Page Sherlock Holmes. Perhaps even Conan Doyle's famous character would be stumped in an attempt to solve the mystery of "Where are the Minnows?" or the "Breaking up of a Fishing Trip!" One day last week J. E. Jones, H. L. Sayre and L. F. Clevenger, who it is said, would rather fish than Magistrate, sell drugs or make candy, gathered and collected a quantity of emery sardines with which to bait the elusive members of the finny tribe.

They hid the bucket containing the results of their efforts in the creek under the bridge on South Detroit street near the Shoe factory. The evening before the proposed sojourn to the happy fishing grounds, the fisherman visited the scene of the cache of the minnows to their sorrow. For the sardines smiled up at them from happy freedom in the water, while the buckets in which they had been jailed were gone from sight. The theft of the minnow buckets and the escape of the minnows which broke up the fishing party offers one of the best "fish stories" of the early fishing season.

Profits Helped Build Our Business

Do you think it's right to save money?

Swift & Company's business has been built up partly by selling capital stock for cash and partly by thrifty saving, putting some of our earnings each year back into the business to increase facilities for production.

That is what most all of us seek to do—save part of our earnings for future usefulness.

It is the way American industries have been built up. It means the least drain on the financial resources of the country.

For the past twenty-four years Swift & Company has made an average profit from all sources of 11.3 per cent on investment (capital and surplus), and 2.3 cents on each dollar of sales—a fraction of a cent per pound. Out of this we have paid dividends and saved something to help us keep pace with a growing country.

BAFFLING MYSTERY COMES TO LIGHT ON THEFT OF FISH BAIT

Roy! Page Sherlock Holmes. Perhaps even Conan Doyle's famous character would be stumped in an attempt to solve the mystery of "Where are the Minnows?" or the "Breaking up of a Fishing Trip?" One day last week J. E. Jones, H. L. Fayre and L. F. Clevenger, who it is said, would rather fish than Magistrate, sell drugs or make candy, gathered and collected a quantity of embryo sardines with which to bait the elusive members of the finny tribe.

They hid the bucket containing the results of their efforts in the creek under the bridge on South Detroit street near the Shoe factory.

The evening before the proposed sojourn to the happy fishing grounds, the fisherman visited the scene of the cache of the minnows to their sorrow. For the sardines smiled up at them from happy freedom in the water, while the buckets in which they had been jailed were gone from sight.

The theft of the minnow buckets and the escape of the minnows which broke up the fishing party offers one of the best "fish stories" of the early fishing season.

FOUR LARGE CANDY SHOPS HER RETURN FROM ONE NICKEL

Mrs. Ora Snyder.

"Mrs. Snyder" may not mean much to the world, at large, but in Chicago Mrs. Snyder is known as the candy woman. The distinctive feature of Mrs. Snyder's record is the fact that she started with just five cents capital. Her business grew and developed and she has never borrowed a cent to invest in it, although she now has four stores in Chicago, all of which she looks after herself. "Any woman could have succeeded with candy of merit to sell," is her modest assertion when asked about her business.

RECIPES FOR A DAY.

Tuna a la Hollandaise—One tablespoon butter substitute, one tablespoon flour, one teaspoon chopped onions, one can tuna fish, one cup milk, one egg, pepper to taste.

Fry onion in butter substitute until light brown, add flour, then milk, stirring constantly until thick. Add tuna and egg well beaten, then seasonings to suit taste, chopped green pepper may be added. Serve on toast if desired.

Steak, Southern Style—One pound round or sirloin steak, one onion, one cup hot water, one cup tomatoes (or commercial tomato soup).

Flour steak heavily. Fry in very hot grease until light brown. Take out and put in onion cut in thin slices. Stir until brown. Pour in hot water. Add tomatoes. When boiling put back steak, cover and let simmer gently until tender about fifteen minutes. Never let boil hard or the steak will be fier with the essence in the gravy. This is excellent and economical, for tough steaks are rendered delicious. Liver may be cooked the same way.

Fruit Salad Dressing—White of two eggs, one-half cup sugar, one-half lemon. Beat whites till very stiff, add sugar very slowly, then lemon juice equally slow. Usually requires fifteen minutes' beating, but is excellent and different.

Carrot Balls—Scrape and boil four large carrots in salt water until tender. Rub through a sieve or potato press and measure. For each cup put into a saucepan over the fire one teaspoon butter; mix with one tablespoon flour and one-half cup milk, stir until thick. Add the prepared carrots; season with salt and pepper. Cook for two minutes longer and set away until cold and firm. Form into small balls, dip each into slightly beaten egg, roll in sifted bread crumbs and fry until golden brown in very hot fat.

CITY TO SPEND $65,000 FOR WATER IMPROVEMENT

supply of water to pass through it. In this basin, any stray iron or other solids settle out.

PASSED TO FILTER BEDS.

The water then will pass by gravity flow into the filter beds built out of scientifically graded sand and gravel and of sufficient depth to remove any other solid matter. From the filtration beds the water passes into clear wells from where it is taken by suction pipes to the large pumps. These large pumps are three in number and each of 700 gallon per minute capacity, any one of which has the power to supply the entire city demand. They are so arranged that two of them are connected separately and either one will operate through the third. The third is a high service pump for fire duty and the water pressure, which is forced into this city against a pressure of 125 pounds to the square inch, 25 pounds more than the pressure pumped against at present.

The new plant will be operated electrically, doing away with the old steam engines and pumps entirely. In connection with the plant will be an apparatus for washing the gravel. This consists of a tank on a 25 foot tower with a capacity of 20,000 gallons. At intervals of four or five hours the water is cut off of the sand filters and the water from the tank will be reversed through the sand from the bottom up, cleaning it thoroughly.

The present cost of pumping water with the steam system is $85 per million gallons, the coal costing $12,000 a year and the labor at the two stations $8,000, a total of $20,000 a year. With the new plant, operated by electricity, the power bill will only amount to $6,000 a year and the labor at the new station will be about $3,000 a year, a saving of $11,000 yearly.

The water has been passed upon as of excellent quality and the quantity is sufficient to supply the demand of a city three times as large as Xenia. As soon after bids are received and let as possible, work will commence on the construction of the new plant.

HOME MADE RECIPE
CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Aroclor and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

"JUST A GIRL"

BY JANE PHELPS

Chapter 28
A FRIEND IN NEED

I seldom thought of Kenneth Lawrence. He was, like all the rest of my young friends a part of my happy care-free life before Dad left us. It was just six months after he had gone away that it all happened. I felt at times that it was six or 16 years since the night of my birthday party when he told me all about himself and asked if he might write to me.

Dad had been gone three months. In three more the year Mother had said must elapse before we communicated with each other, would be gone. Once I spoke of it to her. It was after Jack's visit, and what he had said, had brought Kenneth into my mind more clearly than he had been for months. But mother made no reply. She seemed almost to have forgotten there was a Kenneth Lawrence, or that she had forbidden our correspondence.

I rather wondered he had not written me just a line when our great sorrow came. Of course Claudia would tell him. But when the weeks went by with no word I ceased to wonder. Only a little hurt remained.

Mother was growing weaker, more dependent. The doctor shook his head, prescribed strengthening foods, jellies, an wines, and sent in his bills regularly. Now I seldom left her even for an hour, but one day I went out to post a letter, and upon my return I was told a lady was waiting in the parlor to see me. I shudder yet when I think of that boarding house parlor.

I wondered who it could be. By this time we seldom saw any of our old acquaintances. One is forgotten more quickly in New York than any other place in the world. A rather good-looking woman rose with a pleasant smile when I went in and said:

"Is this William Stewart's daughter?"

"Yes. I am Zena Stewart."

"Did you ever hear him speak of his Aunt Susan, his step-aunt really. I was his uncle's second wife; and my husband was his uncle only by marriage. Rather complicated, isn't it?"

"Yes, I have heard him speak of you. I am very glad to see you."

"I made up my mind when I heard he had passed away that the very next time I came to New York I would hunt up his family. I live up the state. I have a little farm with chickens, geese, and turkeys for company and profit beside a dog and a cat. I thought maybe you might want to visit me sometime. Even if I am not very close, I guess I am the only relative your Father had—if you can call it being related."

Again that pleasant smile. I felt like throwing my arms around her neck and crying out all my troubles and anxieties to her. Instead I said:

"I am so glad; you don't know how glad! Will you come up to Mother with me? She has been an invalid ever since Father died. It was so sudden and so awful."

"I thought William was very rich. That's on reason I never intruded my relationship. I'm not much for society."

"He was. But we have nothing now. His investments, made just a short time before he died, turned out badly. We are poor now."

"And your mother is sick? How do you live?"

"We have a few hundred dollars

Mr. I thought I could go right to work. I have had every advantage of education, music etc., but I haven't been able to leave Mother. She can't bear me to be away even to do an errand. It is pitiful—she was so self-sufficient before."

"You poor child! I guess the Lord sent me. I had a feeling I was needed. He makes us His instruments in His own good time, my dear. Sometimes when things look blackest, He takes a hand."

I led the way upstairs.

"Mother I have brought you company," I said as I entered the room, followed by aunt Susan Brackett.

"Yes" She scarcely looked up.

"I am William's aunt." She took mother's hand in hers. "I used to know and love him when he was a boy."

"You —loved—William!" With the halting exclamation Mother burst into tears, the first she had shed in weeks. At a sign from Aunt Susan, I left them alone. For the first time in months I had someone to think for me.
